

Sooke Fine Arts has something for everyone

Tanta DeSteffany Pennington demonstrates Japanese wood block printing techniques at the Sooke Fine Arts Show.

By Sooke News Mirror

Published: August 01, 2012 05:00 AM

Updated: July 31, 2012 12:5812 PM

Other events at the Sooke Fine Arts Show include:

Thursday, Aug. 2, 7-9 p.m.

Taste of Sooke: A night to explore all that Sooke has to offer! Sample tasty savories and sweets made by the amazing culinary talents of the region.

Thursday, Aug. 2, 2-4 p.m., Friday, Aug. 3, 2-4 p.m. Free for seniors.

Seniors Teas: Enjoying fine art and a fine cup of tea with scones and jam.

Artists demonstrate their work, musicians perform and the gift shop offers small works by artists represented in the show.